Friendly to users. And the environment.

With great features to enhance productivity and elevate efficiency in work environment, the new Fuji Xerox DocuPrint C1190 FS has been designed to benefit even non-users. In line with our Corporate Social Responsibility commitment, we have taken great care to ensure that the DocuPrint C1190 FS also cares for the natural environment.

Makes economical and ecological sense.

As well as making the DocuPrint C1190 FS affordable, we've also kept it environmental friendly by using renewable components. Like our other printers, this one is oil-free and consumes less power. Not surprisingly, it has earned energy efficient compliance – the ENERGY STAR.

Fuji Xerox EA-HG Toner

DocuPrint C1190 FS uses Fuji Xerox proprietary advanced Emulsion Aggregation (EA) toners which are chemically grown. This process is believed to be more environmental friendly and delivers the desired small and uniformed toner particle size that will result in superior print quality and sharper images. At the same time, the innovative toner cartridge design makes toner replacement a breeze.

ENERGY STAR Qualified

To help you conserve on energy, no effort has been spared in ensuring that the DocuPrint C1190 FS complies with ENERGY STAR, whose objective is to save energy and protect the environment through energy efficient products and processes. Being ENERGY STAR compliant, the DocuPrint C1190 FS efficiently performs regular tasks with less energy. Since it often doubles as a fax machine, the DocuPrint C1190 FS would be left running after office hours. At times like these, a low power mode automatically kicks in. By saving energy, this lower greenhouse gas emission helps improve the quality of our environment.

Intuitive Control Panel

Even though it has so much to offer, mastering the DocuPrint C1190 FS is easy, thanks to the Intuitive Control Panel. Comprising a large LCD of 4 lines and 32 characters, one-touch buttons plus an alpha-numeric keypad, accessing the functions you want has never been quicker.

DocuPrint C1190 FS

DocuPrint C1190 FS
Colour Multifunction Printer

Brilliant Simplicity for Delightful Results
Affordable 4-in-1 colour solution

Compact, dependable and powerful A4 colour laser multifunction device that runs at 12ppm in colour!

The new Fuji Xerox DocuPrint C1190 FS is an entry-level, A4-sized, colour laser multifunction that may be small in size. But is definitely big on features. In colour, it prints and copies 12 pages a minute, and speeds up to 16 pages a minute for the same in Black and White. With its competitive processing speed, compact design, high performance and affordable dependability, it's no wonder the DocuPrint C1190 FS will make its way into many Small Office, Home Office.

4-in-1 for everyone

From basic printing to copying, from scanning to faxing, everything is at your fingertips if you have the DocuPrint C1190 FS.
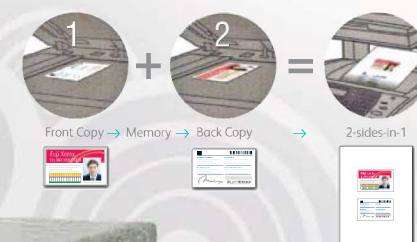

Laser sharp printing that gives you the edge

Business is all about making the right impression. And with the network ready and USB2.0 compatible DocuPrint C1190 FS, you'll definitely look sharp. Since time is money, it comes with a powerful 400MHz processor and features a 384MB memory that shortens processing time and prints documents in high quality – so printing 12 pages per minute in colour (16ppm in B&W) is easily achieved. A 250-sheet paper tray completes large print jobs with less re-loading. Fewer pit-stops means greater efficiency.

The copier that takes the lead

Supported by a 35-sheet Automatic Document Feeder, the DocuPrint C1190 FS easily churns out 12cpm (colour) and 16cpm (B&W), making it one of the fastest in its class. Getting the bigger picture is also easy thanks to the 25% to 400% reduction/ enlargement. Our ID Copy feature makes cost efficiency easier to achieve. Now, both sides of a small-sized document can be automatically fitted onto the same side of an A4-page quickly.

Front Copy → Memory → Back Copy = 2-sides-in-1

Laser faxing that sends a clear message

Faxes may not be as warp speed as sending Email messages. However, when you just have to fax, the DocuPrint C1190 FS rises to the challenge. For speed, its supports up to Super G3 fax. Sending multiple faxes has never been easier. With 200 speed dials, 6 group dials and 8 one-touch dials, Workgroup faxing is now at your fingertips. Our DirectFAX even lets you send faxes directly from PC without the need for additional software. And with SecureFax Receive, you can safely share the fax machine - without sharing sensitive information.

Colour scanning that helps you stand out

Inside every Fuji Xerox DocuPrint C1190 FS is a CCD scanner to ensure high scan quality. By using such advanced image sensing technology, colour scanning up to 9600dpi enhanced resolution is easy. Further improve the document flow in your office and speed up work with intelligent functions such as Scan to Email (Direct without PC) or Network Scan to FTP/SMB.

Greater connectivity for smoother work efficiency

Without doubt, the DocuPrint C1190 FS is a wonderful 4-in-1 machine. However, it is not just another multifunction device. It is a complete office productivity solution. With integrated functions and specifications, DocuPrint C1190 FS accelerates office operations and improves office efficiency.

a. Secure Print and Fax Receive

No matter how open an organization is, there will be some information that is just too sensitive to be shared with all. With the "Secure Print and Fax Receive" feature, the DocuPrint C1190 FS lets you use passwords to stop confidential faxes and print-outs from becoming open secrets.
